McGRAW CLAIMS RELEASE FROM ST. LOUIS CONTRACTS.

Noted Baseball Player Says Local Club Has Failed to Fulfill Its Obligations to Him and Catcher Robinson.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Nev. 15 - John McGraw of Baltimore, who with his business and haseball partner, Wilbert Robinson, has decided to put a Baltimore club into the American League, was in this city yesterday.

McGraw is satisfied that the American, with its new circuit, comprising Parladelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Fuffalo in the East and Chicago, Detroit, Minutakee and Cleveland in the West, will score a hig suc-

The new Oriole team will be managed by me, with Robinson as captain, and the firm of Robinson & McGraw will own the controlling interest in the stock company that will finance the Baltimore clab."

For the last week Mr. Robison's private attorney, Judge Russell of Clevelaid, has been in town. Mr. Russell is a mon whose time is worth money, and he scarce is in St. Louis for his health. John H. Overad of St. Louis is Mr. Becker's attorney also attorney for the American Baseball and Athlette Exhibition Company.

President F. de Haas Robison of the St. Louis club, is registered at the Southern. A Republic reporter kept viril at that hosselry from 3 c'clock on Thursday night till 3 o'clock Friday morning. Up to that hour Mr. Robison had not appeared at the hotel. His key was in his box, and the night clerk said that he was not in.

BASEBALL WAR MAY RESULT.

President Johnson Says American League Is Ready for Trouble. Chicago, Nov. 15.-President Ban B. John son of the American League sounded a clear pote of independence to-day, when he declared that nobody's consent had been asked regarding the Eastern Invasion.

"We did not ask John L. Rogers if we could place a cub in Philadelphia," said the president, "and we did not ask if we the president, and we did not ask if we could place teams in either Baltimore or Washington. We just went ahead and did as we pleased, and, afthough not looking for trouble, we are ready for it at any time."

The Chronicle to-morrow will say:

Robinson and I will have a club in Baltimore and expect to have it for many years to come. We will not take the old League grounds unless we can get them for nothing. We can secure half, a dozen good sites, if we want them, in districts where there is no danger of streets being cut through in the man future.

Reserved Clause No Good.

"It is true Robinson and I have been reserved for 1901 by the St. Louis clab, but there is no chance of the club's action hadding in law, because the contracts we signed and the reserve chance eliminated. Cutside of that, the St. Louis clab owes me St.130 and Robinson something like $20. These amounts should have been faild within two days after the close of the basehall season, according to the League contract. So I don't see the least chance for the teserve rule to hold in our cases.

"A committee of our league will meet John T. Brush, A. H. Salen and Colonel John I. Regers of the National League next week in cleveland to arrange details prior to the fall meetings of both leagues. One thing our party will insist on is that there shall be no drafting by the National in drafting from minor leagues, and also that we shall have equal rights with the National in drafting from minor leagues.

As the league of the national league will be possible of players alive will be a great as its one-time master. The league of players alive of players in its ore-time master. One player does not make a league, however grout he may be. Rusie, Hugaes, Griffin-where are they? Dead, so far as the gams is concerned. The National League would hardly feel the loss of McGraw, was it not that he would be a rival in many of its towns. McGraw's team in Chicago and Philadelphia, where the American League competes with the National, would be a very strong oard indeed.

McGraw may not come to St. Lonis. So

Medraw may not come to St. Louis. So long as he lives and does business in Baltimore it is better that he should not. To get a winning team in St. Louis McGraw is not essential. But unless he is released by the St. Louis club he will not play in Baltimore or anywhere else save in St. Louis.

The counting out of Louisville as a base-ball town is one of the unremarked features of the fall season. The Kentucky metrop-cils never was much of a baseball town. Now they say that it is a bad racing town, too. If this is so Louisville must be a sad likel on the Kentuckian, who was, or is supposed to be or have been, the sports-man proper of America. The bluegrass is supposed to beget the thoroughbred and the sportsman. Mayhap it does, but they do not stay at home. Kentucky, with all its wealth of past prestige and present affluence, does not support a single race track or horse race worthy of the name, nor is there within its confines a baseball club The counting out of Louisville as a baseradical change in the affairs of the St Louis club.

When seen by a Republic renorter vestericay, Mr. Becker said that he had absoluted by no disagreement with the Mesers, Rohlson. He was asked if he had refused to oblew his stock to be assessed for his share of the debts of the corporation, and if Mr. Robison did not propose to sue and compelling to the debts of the corporation, and if Mr. Robison did not propose to sue and compelling to the debts of the corporation, and if Mr. said that he had heard of no such suit and added that he had heard of no such suit he had refused to be held dable for any part of the debts of the club contracted in the last season.

"Naturally enough the club lost money," said Mr. Becker, "owing to the street rall—way men's strike and other things, but he amount was not so awfully large. It will all be paid off very soon. As far as owln; money to players goes, I do not think that the club owes any player more than 55, which Mr. Robison retained as punishment for offenses against club rules during the season."

TOMMY WHITE ABOUT THROUGH. Famous Chicago Feather Weight Will Quit the Roped Arena.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Chicago, Nov. 15.-Tommy White, who has fought both McGovern and Broad, watched their fight at Tattersall's Tuesday night from a box seat.

"I don't know but what it was a good thing the police stopped my light with Broad," Tom said, laughingly. White and Broad went but a couple of rounds in St. Louis last December, the police calling a halt because one of the contestants in a preliminary had died in the dressing-room after being knocked out.

"I never got a chance that night to find out how good Broad was," White told his brought to us just before time was called and both of us knew that the fight would be stopped. Therefore, actiber of us did much but wait for the police."

White is in doubt about ever fighting again. His ankle, which was so badiy injured in his second fight with McGovern in New York, still gives him some trouble.

"You see, there would be money only in fighting such men as McGovern and Broad," is the way he philosophizes about the situation and they are as cough that there is has fought both McGovern and Broad, is the way he philosophizes about the sin-ation, "and they are so tough that there is a pretty good chance for a man to get a whipping, and that does not do much good to anybody."

Mr. Hachmeister Had Tough Fortune in Golf Match at Fair Grounds.

At the Fair Grounds yesterday two matches in the handicap tournament of the Jockey Club, which was laid over from the early part of November, were played. Mr. Paramore defeated Mr. Robyn 5 up and 4 to play. Mr. Robyn had a handicap of twelve strokes, Mr. Paramore one of eight, hence the latter gentleman was giving Mr. Robyn four strokes, which very comfortably did.

After twenty holes of stubbern play Mr.

mediate holes being balved. Going back to the lake he was 3 up and 4 to play, and the game seemed all over. But Mr. Hachmelsky then struck en unexampled run of hard patting lack. He lost the sixth hole by short putting, and was 2 up and 3 to go. On the seventh green he put the bail down fairly on the like and find the match won, but it seemed as if some invisible agency threw the sphere out of the very hottom of the cup and the hole was halved.

Downle two, he was "dead" to the eighth hole with als second, as was his opponent, but he put past on the like, and playing the out again not the ball in the cup, only to have a jump out once more, losing the hole 5 to 1. On the home green he was hole like his 14% and mad his opponent playing the out, as was his opponent playing the out. Singularly, too, his organear was always playing the old on the freen. Playing the miseteenth hole, both were in the cop banker to the left on their seconds. Mr. Hachtonister was dead to the hole on his third, a most difficult shot. Again he hocked his part a bit and missed a 3-foot shot for 4 and the match. Playing the twentieth hole he was over the green with his second, his opponent being hot-high with the same number. Another fine approach had 2 in dead. His opponent holed out on the odd. Then came mother streak of hard luck on the green for Mr. Hachmelster. He had a 3-foot shot for get past the hole. He played a perfect ball, straight as a die, and apparently with the right force. But a truant blade of grass intervened and held the ball salvering on the brink of the cup. Another half-revolution would have put it down. It was a tough put to lose.

YALE LEAVES FOR PRINCETON TO-DAY.

Final Practice Game With College Eleven Showed Capt. Brown's Men to Be on Edge.

TIGERS ALSO ARE IN FINE FORM.

To Morrow's Big Contest Should Be a Memorable One-New Men May Be in the Two Lines-Great Crowd Is Expected.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New Haven, Conn., Nov. 15,-Yale's var-ity football eleven had its first practice this evening for the game with Princeton. It was all secret work. For nearly half of the forty-five minutes of play the eleven was tried on defense.

The college side was given the ball and ordered to advance it, part of the time by end plays. That method failed aimost every time it was tried, "Fake" plays proved futile, too, and finally line-bucking was tried from the fifteen-yard line. Fourteen men were sent against the 'varsity from that point and were held for downs. After nine attempts, the ball was finally taken over for a touchdown. The final gain was made through Olcott, center, and "Dick" Sheldon, right guard. As Captain Brown and Bioomer were not In the 'varsity line, it was not Yale's best team, and, considering the fact that the "scrubs" were favored in the holding of the ball after they lost it on downs, the coaching staff seemed well pleased with the varsity defense.

The hard work was against the advice of Murphy, the trainer, who is distressingly nervous. The work to-morrow will consist of a short signal practice. The team and first substitutes will leave for New York in the afternoon, and will remain there until Saturday morning, going to Princeton on a special car. There are two places in the line in doubt-left tackle and right end, Rafferty may precede Coy at end and Hamilton go in before bloomer at tackie.

It consisted aimost entirely of signal drills, and, although the utmost secrecy was maintained, it is believed that the men appear to be in satisfactory form, judging from the cheerfulness of the coaches.

Although the line-up for Saturday has not yet been given out by Captain Pell. the opinion seems to be that the team will not be constituted quite as it was in the game against Corimbia. Several of the substitute players have shown up remarkably well within the last week and may supersede the men who have all along been considered as regulars.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL the game to be played with Georgetown Saturday, the University of Virginia has for the past week put forth extraordinary efforts at practice. The coaching corps has been materially strengthened by the arrival of Saunders Taylor, the famous quarter back of the team of 1894. This valuable acquisition has given Virginia a quarter of coaches—Hexton, Cocke, Taylor and Moore. The mear realize that they will have to fight hard to win from Georgetown, as the herce struggle of last year, which resulted in a score of e to e, has not yet been forgotten.

Confidence has been greatly increased by the fine showing made under the "new line-up" in the game last Saturday with Gallaudet College. Virginia has for the coaching the fine showing made under the "new line-up" in the game last Saturday with Gallaudet College. Washington, Nov. 15.-In anticipation of improved greatly in her team work, due to the steady practicing of the past week.

Several positions on the team have been holly contested for, and even up to this late date the management is in a dilemma as to who are the best men for some of the places. Walker's new position as full back is assured. He kicks well and is looked upon by the men as a sure ground gainer. He bids fair to become the star of the team. Dabney is doing excellent work at left half, and his position is also secure. He is one of the stars of this year's team, and his presence is well-nigh ledispensable. There is a lively rivairy for the position of right half back on the resular team. Coleman is, of course, in the late team. Coleman is, of course, in the late of the School of Mines of Rolla team will meet the strong Smith Academy eleven at Atheletic Park to-morrow morning.

The raircads running from Holla to St. Louis have made a special rate for the the position of right half back on the res-ular team. Coleman is, of course, in the lead, but the spiendid playing of Johnson has made a strong impression. Carroll also is up in the bunch, and his fine work has also been favorably commented upon. Coach Bull was able to judge from last Saturday's game the main defects in the Georgetown team, which were mostly in the Georgetown team, which were mostly in the end plays, in which Georgetown was very week, and he will give careful attention to this point. The fine punting done by Devlin on Saturday encouraged Coach Bull so greatly that it is evident he will use Devlin a good deal next Saturday at National Park. The student body of the college were so encouraged by Saturday's victory over V. M. I. that they all appeared on the field at yesterday's practice, and rehearsed songs and yells for the coming Virginia game.

MANUAL WILL TROUBLE HIGH. Training School Players Improving With Remarkable Rapidity.

Manual Training School as a developer good football players is showing wonderful improvement this fall. Early in the seaon, the school was represented by a lot of son, the school was represented by a so to youngsters who knew absolutely nothing about the griditon science. To day these same lade are putting up a same that would do justice to any even in this locality. The fact that the Manuals have been puzzle-The fact that the Mantais have been practically without a cosen and have developed their own plays makes their showing all the more meritorious. It was started at the beginning of the season that Manual would beat no one if she did not learn new plays, as at that time the boys could do nothing but buck the line. In the game against Smith A ademy they bucked the line continuity and did not once try she coult ris.

Yesterday afternoon the Manual team went to Pastime Park in De Hodiantou and lined up against eight of the Marion-Sims players. The showing the lads made was remarkable. They had no trouble in scoring several times on the eight medicos, who played on the defensive attogether.

New plays were the features, as the "Knights of the Lath" footed the medican students time and again. Their interfer use was at times perfection, and in line bucking they have improved fully 20 per cent.

Sutherland, the Marion-Sims center, played that position for Manual, as her center was absent. In return, one of the Manual players went to tackle for the Medicos. If Manual Training School plays the kind

The early games [layed by the public school boys bardly count for anything, as they are playing twice as good a game to-day as they were in Schoolmer. They will step on the field thoroughly confident of their ability to defeat the Washington avenue. "Tigers." Manual Training School, on the other hand, has wen but a single game, that against Western Military Academy. Manual is improving every day, and has all of her best men fit to play, although Robinson and Carien laid off vesterday. High School will have several cripples lined up on the Pastime gridiron to-morrow afternoon. Tom Henry probably will play, notwithstanding the fact that he has been unable to walk without the aid of a cane for the last week. Johnny Lamb may be in at center, but has a weak shoulder that is liable to go back on him at any time. Bob Kinsey, the full back and all-round star, will play, but is shoulder is so sere that he will not feel much like hitting a line. North Moore is not up to a hard game, as a result of the brulses he received in the McKendree game early in the fall. Moore did not give his hurts time enough to heat, and in consequence will not be fit this season. Erskine has an able substitute at right end in Nicholson, who can be relied upon to do good work just when it is neded.

Supprises have been the feature of this football season and a big one may be given to High School followers to-morrow, although the veterans of that school should come off victorious.

Montgomery is one of the substitutes who has taken a brilliant spurt in his work at left end, and stands a good chance of getting a try at Yule. He is coming around nice-ly, however, so he should be fit by the 24th, Ham Sitherland works every day, but one of his knees is swollen out of all proportion and is really so bad that he, too, should be out of the sense. and is really so but that he, too, shelld see out of the game.

All in all, the medicos are in a bad way and would be rather easy picking for a good eleven to-marrow. They were to have played the team of Carbondale, Ill., but the game slipped through by some misunderstanding.

Confidence has been greatly increased by the fine showing made under the "new line-up" in the same last Saturday with Gallaudet College, Virginia put up as line a game as was ever witnessed in Charlotte-wile, while Gallaudet played hard and steady, and died fighting bravely.

Several marked improvements were noticed during Saturday's game. Virginia has improved greatly in her team and individual work, due to the steady practicing of the past week.

Thesolore Bland, the old C. B. C. and Washington player, is coaching the Rolla team, which has met and vanquished both C. B. C. and Washington University this fall. The Rolla Miners heat C. B. C. by a score of 6 to 6, and won from Washington by a score of 11 to 5.

St. Louis University has the strongest football eleven in the history of the institution in recent years. The team made an even break with C. B. C. team in the first half of last Saturday's struggie and the bysare confident of doing as well, if not beiter, against Rolla, C. B. C. and Rolla are very evenly matched. It certainly looks as though St. Louis University looks as though St. Louis University ought to make things interesting for the Rolla Miners for awhile at least.

Coach Delaney of the St. Louis University had a big squad of his boys working at presence was supersed of Azay, brother-in-law of Le Baudy, who requested Cobients to withdraw. The Capiain refused, where-upon Le Baudy stopped the hunt and all dispersed.

A duel between Coblentz and d'Azay is expected to morrow.

Coblentz bids fair to be a second Dreyfus, so far as hatred of him by his brother officers is concerned. Coblentz is fearless, as his general challenge at the Anteuil race to a crowd who scoffed at him, shows, but is said to be without tact, as his intraction into a stage hunt given by so rabid as sion into a stag hunt given by so rabid anti-Semite as Max Le Baudy proves.
